Genesis 1 in Columns

Genesis 1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. 2 The land was formless and void, and darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters.

First day

3 Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. 4 God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. 5 God called the light day, and the darkness He called night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

Second day

6 Then God said, Let there be an expanse (atmosphere) in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." 7 God made the expanse, and separated the waters which were below the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so. 8 God called the expanse heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

Third day

9 Then God said, "Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear"; and it was so. 10 God called the dry land 'land,' and the gathering of the waters He called seas; and God saw that it was good. 11 Then God said, "Let the land sprout vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees on the land bearing fruit after their kind with seed in them"; and it was so. 12 The land brought forth vegetation, plants yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit with seed in them, after their kind; and God saw that it was good. 13 There was evening and there was morning, a third day.

Fourth day

14 Then God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years; 15 and let them be for lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the land"; and it was so.

16 God made the two great lights, the greater light to govern the day, and the lesser light to govern the night; He made the stars also.

17 God placed them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the land, 18 and to govern the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good.

19 There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

Fifth day

20 Then God said, "Let the waters teem with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the land in the open expanse of the heavens." 21 God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarmed after their kind, and every winged bird after its kind; and God saw that it was good. 22 God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the land." 23 There was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

Sixth day

24 Then God said, "Let the land bring forth living creatures after their kind: cattle and creeping things and beasts of the land after their kind;" and it was so. 25 God made the beasts of the land after their kind, and the cattle after their kind, and everything that creeps on the ground after its kind; and God saw that it was good. 26 The God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over the cattle and over all the land, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the land." 27 God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. 28 God blessed them; and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the land, and subdue it; and rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over every living thing that moves on the land. 29 And God said, "Behold, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the face of all the land, and every tree with seed in its fruit. You shall have them for food. 30 And to every beast of the land and to every bird of the heavens and to everything that creeps on the land, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so. 31 And God saw all that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.
